Salt Lake, 1; Butte, 0.

That's getting 'em, eh?

Only about 500 interested fans saw the game, but they saw a game worth going miles to look upon. There has been no better here elsewhere in the N. P. league this season. From the beginning it was a pitchers' battle between Tozer and Hoon for them, and Tozer took the candy. He pitched a great game, holding 'em down to six scattered bingles.

Hoon was also there with the muscles, but Lake getting but five hits. For six innings there was nothing doing. In the seventh, Hoon batted the horsehide off his anatomy after Hansen singled.

This put Bill at second. Gim fanned, Es-pick flew out at second but Forsyth sent a single down to middle. Then Bill Hau-sen began a sprint. He kicked up so much dust he could hardly be seen, but he beat the ball home with the game.

There was a pretty play in the third.

Dowling got to third on a hit, and Mc-Farlane knocked one to Gim. Dowling sprinted for home and Gim fielded the ball straight to the home plate to Tozer.

Nothing doing for Dowling.

For the Olympian Golf Championship—Round 1. Match.
St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 23.—Finals tomorrow for the Olympian golf championship will be contested in real international style by United States Golf association Champion H. Chandler of Exmoor, and George S. Lyon of Toronto, Canada. Each won his match today in the semi-final round. Lyon defeated B. P. McKinnin, the St. Louis champion, 4 to 3 to play. It was not until the last putt was holed on the thirty-sixth green that the Canadian ex-champion eliminated from the tourney F. C. Newton of Seattle.Battling hard for the rounds, victory appearing to rest first with the Pacific coast man and then with his veteran rival, Newton had to succumb to hard luck and lost, one down.After a most interesting morning battle the Canadian had a lead of one hole. On the twenty-first hole, Lyon separated them. At the fifth hole Newton was 2 up, but at the twelfth hole Mr. Lyon was 3 up. At the nineteenth hole, Lyon brought Newton to the end of the first hole, only 1 down.The Canadian took the nineteenth hole, but the twenty-first hole, the twenty-third green lost that hole to Newton, but he won the twenty-fourth hole. Lyon took the twenty-sixth. The twenty-seventh was halved in two. Not in years has a gallery seen such play as the men displayed on the twenty-seventh green. Each drove the green.
Newton being away Judging the hill nicely Newton holed the putt. Not long ago he had been the Seattle rival whose twenty-foot putt was a wonder. Mr.
Lyon negotiated his putt from sixteen feet.The match was all square at this point. Newton took the twenty-eighth hole, but lost the thirty-first by giving away the hole. Lyon putting lost him the next, using four strokes on the green. Lyon lost the thirty-third, but the thirty-fourth and the thirty-fifth were halved. Almost holding his approach Newton had to be satisfied with a half at the thirty-sixth green. and the Canadian earned the right to play in the finals, 1 up.J. BRITT VS J. GANS.
Peculiar Actions of the Coast Fighter Towards the Black.Unless either side backs out there will be a match soon. Joe Gans and Jimmy Britt, who are scheduled for Friday night the clever negro had a talk with Britt and as a result they agreed to meet for the lightweight title of the world.
Some time ago Gans challenged Britt, something unusual for a champion to do.
But the colored man was prompted by his wide swath in political circles in San Francisco, where he is supposed to cut a wide swath in political circles in San Francisco, wrote a letter to Al Herford, Gans' manager, in which he stated that he would use his influence to stop boxing in that city if the dusky champion persisted in forcing Britt into a scrap.
Naturally Britt's change of heart at this stage is a surprise.Gans has proved himself to be the best lightweight we have had in years. He has been a consistent performer and ever willing to fight when called upon. There was always some doubt as to whether the negro could fight at the lightweight limit, 135 pounds, regardless. Most of his matches were at a higher scale and the weighting in time was in the afternoon.
Gans now contends that he will not have the slightest difficulty in making the legitimate lightweight standard and proposes to face Britt under these conditions.Stiff Knocked Out.
Baltimore, Sept. 23.—Philadelphia Jack O'Brien knocked out Bill Stitt in the second round of the light-heavyweight Athletic club. The men are mid-dleweights and fought at catch weights for purse. O'Brien holed Stitt twice during the second round. Later he landed a right swing to the jaw that sent Stitt down and out.LAST RACE MEET OF THE SEASON.Sensational Finishes Characterized Last Night's Saucer

A LARGE CROWD ATTENDED.

Another Contest Between McFarlane and Samuelson in Which the Former Was Victorious.Last night's bicycle meet at the Salt Palace was a fitting climax to a season of good racing.
In the first place, there was a good sized crowd on hand to witness the doings. Second, every race was a hair-raiser. The weather was delightful and the music excellent.
The riders, professionals and amateurs, did their best last night and their efforts were highly appreciated by the cycle fans in attendance.The motor race between E. B. Hea-gren, T. M. Samuelson, J. M. Chapman and Earl Staley, has not been excelled this season or any other season for that matter. It was a thriller with a thrill in every lap, and as the race was of five miles, there were a great many thrills.
Between events the spectators were entertained by sweet music from the band led by A. S. Zimmerman. Special mention should be made of the saxophone solo by Earl Mackay. He played that old-time favorite, "Cricket on the Hearth," in a most charming manner.But this is a story of the races.
Second to the motor race, chief interest centered in the final of the one-mile professional, Samuelson and McFarlane were in separate heats, both qualified, and both were in the final. Those who imagine that the local riders has a ghost of a chance against the speedy Jose boy, should have been at the saucer last night. They would have seen McFarlane run away from the Provo lad. Early in the race, Palmer pulled the bunch around at a lively clip. Suddenly Samuelson shot ahead and sprinted for home. It appeared as an open den to McFarlane to fight it out without the aid of pacemakers, and McFarlane quickly accepted it. In a twinkling the rivals were within neck and neck and the other contestants were left far behind. For more than half a lap they fought it out hotly. Then McFarlane pumped ahead, leaving Samuelson far in the rear. Downing, Hoffman and Hollister were quickly taking pace from Floyd, and dashed in the order named. Samuelson quitted high on the bank.It was a bad night for "Sam." He was in the consolation race. That is, he was in it for awhile.
When it came to the final sprint, young Hopper beat the Provo lad, and beat him badly, or "reedy," as you please.
But the five-mile motor race was the feature. A killing pace was set from the start of the race. It was soon apparent that the struggle would be between Samuelson and young Heagren, and again the latter demonstrated that he can beat anything on the track that kind of a race. He was a quarter of a lap behind Samuelson at one stage of the five-mile race, and several times he tried hard to go around Samuelson, each time failing.
Chapman and Staley were soon out of it.
Cattely Heagren allowed his machine to drop back a few yards, and then he pulled the throttle wide open, leaned low on the wheel, and let gasoline take its course. After a few moments he stepped track for a mile or so, he gained the lead, and was never headed. For over two miles the pace they set was around the 120 mark.The fans who saw last evening's events felt to congratulate Manager Heagren for the manner in which he has conducted the races this season. There has never been the least suggestion of crookedness, and the public has been given its money's worth on all occasions.
A summary of the events follows:
Three-quarter-mile handicap, amateur—Schnell (50 yards). C. Redman (scratch), Halliday (70 yards). Time—1:29.5.
Five-mile motor race—McFarlane, Downing, Hoffman, Hollister. Time—1:56.4-5.
Three-mile race, amateur—C. Redman, West, J. Redman, Castro, Laps; Larson, 1; Lundgren, S; Heagren, 1; Castro, 1; Mills, 2; Redman, 3; Weiser, 1; Wilcox, 1.
Half-mile consolation, professional—Hopper, Samuelson, Williams, Palmer.
Time—0:38.5.
Five-mile motor race—Heagren, T. M.
Samuelson, Chapman; Staley unplaced.
